In the six years the Fete has been going, we've raised well into seven figures. It's really just a great cocktail party which offers terrific food and drinks, and entertainment.

This year it was set up like a carnival. There was a juggler, and the Mad Hatter lady, Whacky Wendy, and the Statue of Liberty plus games to play with prizes like Teddy Bears, etc. And a silent auction. And the mayor makes an appearance and gives the guests a little speech of thanks for their contribution to helping our fellow citizens.

Inside the Fete ...
